INFORMATION CIRCULAR

To: Members of the staff at Headquarters

From: The Director for General Services

Subject: ELECTRONIC MAIL - AUTOMATIC MESSAGE DELETION

1. In order to ensure that the file size of the cc:Mail message databases remains manageable, it has been decided that, starting on 1 July 1994, messages will be systematically deleted from the cc:Mail databases in accordance with the following guidelines:

(a) Messages in the Inbox, Trash folder, or Message Log folder which have been read will automatically be deleted after 30 days;

(b) Messages in all other folders which have been read will automatically be deleted after 90 days;

(c) Any unread messages will automatically be deleted after one year.

2. There is a mechanism called "archiving" in cc:Mail for saving messages on a personal computer's hard disk or a floppy disk. A cc:Mail archive is a file on a local disk where users can store selected messages and can access them as any regular folder in cc:Mail.

3. Instructions on how to archive messages may be reviewed on the "Archiving Messages" bulletin board by choosing the message item which relates to either the DOS or the Windows version of cc:Mail.

4. A reminder broadcast message will be sent to all cc:Mail users before 1 July 1994.

From: The Director of Personnel

Subject: 1994 COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION FOR GERMAN TRANSLATORS/PRÉCIS-WRITERS

1. A competitive examination for the recruitment of German translators/précis-writers will be held on 5 and 6 October 1994 in New York, Geneva, Vienna, Frankfurt and other locations according to the number and location of qualified candidates convoked for the examination. The purpose of this examination is to establish a roster from which present and future vacancies for German translators/précis-writers will be filled.

2. The examination is open to staff members of the United Nations at the P-3 level and below who meet the eligibility requirements. Staff members from subsidiary organs of the United Nations, as well as staff members whose service is limited to a particular organ, fund or programme of the United Nations or special missions, are considered outside candidates for the purpose of this examination. 1/ Such candidates, if successful, will be offered a new appointment with the United Nations subject to normal United Nations recruitment procedures and standards. Staff members who are successful in this examination and are selected for inclusion in the roster will be assigned to fill vacancies as they occur in the German Section, Translation and Editorial Division, Office of Conference Services of the United Nations Secretariat in New York. Translators/précis-writers are expected to serve a MINIMUM OF FIVE YEARS in a language post. The assignment of staff members of the United Nations who are successful in the examination and are selected to fill vacancies will be subject to the conditions set out in paragraphs 10 and 11 below.

3. Staff members of the Secretariat applying for the examination must:

(a) Have German as their main language; 2/

(b) Have a perfect command of German and an excellent knowledge of English. They must also have an excellent knowledge of French or Spanish. Knowledge of Arabic, Chinese or Russian is desirable. Previous translation experience would be considered an asset. The Board of Examiners, appointed by the Director of Personnel, Office of Human Resources Management, requires that candidates' claims to knowledge of official languages must be supported by relevant documentation in their official status files. Staff members who have been enrolled in a United Nations language course in any of the languages claimed must have passed the United Nations language proficiency examination in that language. Candidates who have not attended the United Nations language courses in the languages claimed must substantiate their claims to knowledge of those languages. For this purpose, staff members should attach to their application a photocopy of either a diploma or a certificate from a language school or a brief explanation of how they acquired their knowledge of the languages claimed. Staff members are advised to submit photocopies, not originals, of such documentation;

(c) Hold a degree or an equivalent qualification from a university or institution of equivalent status at which German is the principal language of instruction. The Board of Examiners may, at its discretion, admit a candidate who has graduated from a university at which the principal language of instruction is not German, provided he/she has adequate secondary educational qualifications from an establishment at which the principal language of instruction is German.

4. The requirement for a university degree or its equivalent from a university or institution of equivalent status may be waived for staff members who, in the judgement of the Board of Examiners, have adequate post-secondary educational qualifications from a university or institution of equivalent status and adequate secondary educational qualifications from an establishment at which the principal language of instruction is German, in addition to five years of continuous service with the United Nations Secretariat by 31 December 1989.

5. All applications will be reviewed by the Board of Examiners. All applicants will be notified of the Board's decision in respect of their application. THE BOARD'S DECISIONS ARE FINAL.

6. The written examination will consist of six papers:

I. Translation into German of a general text in English (two hours);

II. Summary in German of a speech in English (one hour);

III. Translation into German of ONE general text to be chosen by the candidate from a total of two texts in French or Spanish (two hours);

IV. Translation into German of TWO English texts to be chosen by the candidate from a total of five specialized texts (economic, legal, scientific, social and technical) (three hours);

V. Revision of a German text poorly translated from English. The original text in English will be provided for reference purposes (two hours);

VI. (Optional). Translation into German of one general text to be chosen by the candidate from a total of two texts in French and Spanish (one hour). Candidates must choose a language other than that chosen in Part III of the examination.

7. The use of a dictionary or any other reference material is NOT permitted during the examination.

8. On the basis of the results obtained in the written examination, the Board of Examiners will invite selected candidates to an interview, which will normally take place 10 to 12 weeks after the written component of the examination. The interview will consist in part of an oral translation, which the candidate will be asked to do after 30 minutes' preparation. In addition, the Board will interview each candidate to assess general culture, professional experience, knowledge of the United Nations, and, in particular, ability to work as a member of a team. The interview is an integral part of the examination. Therefore, candidates who are invited to an interview SHOULD NOT assume that they will be offered an assignment.

9. On the basis of the overall results of the examination, the Board will recommend to the Director of Personnel the names of candidates for inclusion in the roster. All candidates admitted to the examination will be informed in writing of the Board's final recommendation in respect of their candidature. The Board's recommendations are NOT subject to appeal. The Board DOES NOT release individual results.

10. Staff members selected to fill vacancies will be assigned as German translators/précis-writers for a trial period of two years. Staff members at the P-1 level or below will receive a special post allowance to the P-2 level. Staff members at the P-2 and P-3 levels will be assigned at their respective levels.

11. Staff members with a special post allowance to the P-2 level and those already at the P-2 level who complete the trial period successfully and are recommended by the Office of Conference Services and the Office of Human Resources Management may be promoted to the P-3 level. Staff members already at the P-3 level who complete the trial period successfully will be confirmed in their translation functions at the P-3 level. Staff members who do not complete the trial period successfully will be reassigned to posts at their previous levels and the special post allowance, if any, will be discontinued.

12. German translators/précis-writers are called upon to translate into German mainly from English and also from the other official languages of the United Nations (primarily French and Spanish).

13. Upon completion of a training period, translators/précis-writers may be required to work on word-processing or similar data-entry equipment for translation and terminological purposes.

14. Staff members applying for the examination should complete the attached form and submit it, NOT LATER THAN 1 August 1994, to:

Competitive Examination for German Translators/Précis-writers
Recruitment and Placement Division
Room S-2535G
United Nations Secretariat
New York, N.Y. 10017

15. Staff members at Headquarters may obtain copies of model examination papers from the Examinations and Tests Section, room S-2575.

16. In order to ensure receipt of all applications submitted by staff members from offices away from Headquarters, these staff members are requested to return their application to the Recruitment and Placement Division through the chief administrative officer or director of the United Nations information centre of their respective duty stations before 1 August 1994, the deadline for receipt of applications in the Recruitment and Placement Division.

Notes

1/ According to the United Nations Staff Rules, candidates bearing a close relationship (father, mother, son, daughter, brother, sister) to currently employed United Nations staff members shall not be offered an appointment with the United Nations Secretariat. Consequently, applications from such candidates for this examination will not be considered.

2/ "Main language" should be understood to be the language into which the candidate is best able to translate. Candidates' claims to German as their main language must be supported by relevant documentation in their official status files.
